Sprint 2 Testing Document

Team 5 Ntr

User Story #	User Story	Tests
16	As a user, I would like to be able to use ntr's chrome extension to autofill my job search profile on job sites such as workday	1) Testing whether user is logged in to access their details to autofill 2) Testing allowing the user to logout once they are done using the extension 3) Testing whether fields are still editable after autofilling 4) Testing whether the extension is able to simulate button clicks to autofill the experience, education, and links section
17	As a user, I would like my application to be added to my tracking database after every application is submitted.	1) Testing whether user is logged in to add their application 2) Testing allowing user to logout once they are done using the extension 3) Testing whether the application is visible on the ntr page once submitted 4) Testing whether the application correctly reflects the status that was submitted.
61	As a user, I want to be able to rate a company using the 5 star rating system.	1) Testing whether the option to add a star rating shows up when creating a review. 2) Testing whether clicking a star fills all the previous stars. 3) Testing whether the star rating gets correctly saved in the database after the review is created. 4) Testing whether the correct star rating gets displayed in the review list page.
62	As a user, I want to be able to edit my star rating for a company.	1) Testing whether the old star rating shows up in the edit review page. 2) Testing whether clicking a new star changes the rating. 3) Testing whether the star rating gets correctly saved in the database after the review is edited. 4) Testing whether the correct star rating gets displayed in the review list page.
63	As a user, I want to be able to delete my star rating for a company.	1) Testing whether the trash button clears the current star rating. 2) Testing whether the star rating gets correctly saved in the database. 3) Testing whether 5 empty stars get displayed in the review list page.
64	As a user, I want to	1) Testing whether the dropdown of

Sprint 2 Testing Document

Team 5 Ntr

	be able to label my reviews with predefined tags.	predefined tags appears while creating a review. 2) Testing whether the user can select multiple tags. 3) Testing whether the tags get correctly stored in the database. 4) Testing whether all the tags are correctly displayed when displaying the reviews in the review list. 5) Testing whether the tags can be edited and correctly stored when editing a review.
66	As a user, I want to be able to see all the reviews for a particular company.	1) Testing whether the users can search by company name using the search bar. 2) Testing whether the correct companies are displayed for a particular search.
30	As a user I would like to view template style options for the website.	1) Testing whether the user can click on the desired theme 2) Testing whether the user's personal website is instantaneously updated with the desired theme 3) Testing whether by clicking 'view all' a pop up appears in which you can view additional themes
32	As a user, I would like to add to the personal information section on my personal website.	1) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's personal information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 2) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's personal information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 3) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's choice to display or hide their personal information is reflected on their actual website
33	As a user, I would like to add to the contact information section on my personal website.	1) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's contact information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 2) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's contact information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 3) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's choice to display or hide their contact information is reflected on their actual website

Sprint 2 Testing Document

34	As a user, I would like to add to the projects information section on my personal website.	1) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's projects information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 2) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's projects information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 3) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's choice to display or hide their projects information is reflected on their actual website
35	As a user, I would like to add to the skills information section on my personal website.	1) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's skills information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 2) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's skills information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 3) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's choice to display or hide their skills information is reflected on their actual website
36	As a user, I would like to add to the past experiences information section on my personal website.	1) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's past experiences information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 2) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's past experiences information gets hidden in the edit and preview page of the website 3) Testing whether by clicking on the eye button, the user's choice to display or hide their past experiences information is reflected on their actual website
7	As a user, I would like to be able to complete my job search profile by uploading my resume.	1) Test whether there is a page to pick between manually filling out resume and uploading a resume 2) Test whether the user is directed to this page upon creating a new account
8	As a user, I would like to upload a text version of my resume.	Test whether the there is a button to upload the users resume Test whether the user can browse through the files on their computer to pick a text file Test whether the name of the selected file is displayed on the page

		Test whether they can submit this file as their resume
9	As a user, I would like to upload a pdf version of my resume.	1) Test whether the there is a button to upload the users resume 2) Test whether the user can browse through the files on their computer to pick a pdf file 3) Test whether the name of the selected file is displayed on the page
10	As a user, I would like to edit the parsed fields on my resume while creating the job search profile.	1) Test whether the user is redirected to the edit page after submitting the resume 2) Test whether the resume is parsed and the fields in the edit page are prefilled with information from the resume 3) Test whether the edits are saved to the profile when the user clicks submit and is redirected to the profile page.
24	As a user, I would like to be able to filter through applications based on the roles applied to.	1) Test whether the filter button can be clicked 2) Test whether the filter is populated with only the roles the user has applied to 3) Test whether clicking on a specific role only shows applications with that specific role
25	As a user, I would like to be able to filter through applications based on the companies applied to.	1) Test whether the filter button can be clicked 2) Test whether the filter is populated with only the companies the user has applied to 3) Test whether clicking on a specific company only shows applications to that specific company
26	As a user, I would like to be able to filter through applications based on those applied to with an older version of the resume.	1) Test whether the filter button can be clicked 2) Test whether the filter has the option to show applications with an old resume or new 3) Test whether clicking on a specific filter only shows applications matching that resume version
27	As a user, I would like to be able to	1) Test whether the filter button can be clicked 2) Test whether the filter is populated with

	filter through applications based on application timeline.	only the dates the user has applied to 3) Test whether clicking on a specific date only shows applications with that specific application date